MARK'S JESUS

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Mark's Gospel is the shortest and tersest of all four. The discourses of Jesus tend to be terser as well. Mark's portrayal of Jesus has none of the poetry of the Sermon on the Mount or the Sermon on the Plain as in Matthew or Luke, nor the extensive, reflective "I Am" discourses as in John. Mark's Jesus "cuts to the chase," we would say today. This is reflected quite well in today's passage. It is no accident that the dialogue of Jesus at this point in the Gospel according to Mark—the concluding words about the end of the world—immediately before his passion, is riddled with exclamation points and an overall sense of urgency. We would do well to re-tool our own way of living this Advent, for we live in a world urgently in need of hearing the message of Jesus proclaimed. It's time for us to "wake up!" and get out into the world to do it

Dear Parishioners,

Welcome to the First Sunday of Advent and the start of our new liturgical year. Advent is a time when we open our hearts and await the coming of the Lord into our lives and hearts.

There are three comings of the Lord the church teaches.

The first coming was his birth. Jesus was already born into our world. We remember and celebrate with solemnity his coming into the world.

The second coming of the Lord is at the end of time. The end of time can be our own individual death or that great day when the Lord will come with all the angels and saints and bring us to heaven.

The third coming, is a silent, mysterious coming. It is the coming of Jesus daily into our lives. Jesus is always present to us. He comes to us every day in prayer, word and sacrament.

Let us open our hearts and welcome the Lord.

Thanks for your support!

Fr. Abels

Estimados feligreses,

Bienvenidos al Primer Domingo de Adviento y al comienzo de nuestro Nuevo Año Litúrgico.

El Adviento: es un tiempo en que abrimos nuestros corazones, y esperamos la venida del Señor a nuestras vidas y corazones.

La Iglesia nos enseña tres venidas del Señor:

La primera venida fue su nacimiento. Jesús ya nació en nuestro mundo. Recordamos y celebramos con

solemnidad su venida al mundo.

La segunda venida del Señor es al final de los tiempos. El fin de los tiempos puede ser nuestra propia muerte individual, o ese gran día en que el Señor vendrá con todos los angeles y santos, y llevarnos al cielo.

La tercera venida es una venida silenciosa y misteriosa. Es la venida de Jesús diariamente a nuestras vidas.

Jesús está siempre presente y viene a nosotros todos los días en oración, palabra y sacramento.

¡Abramos nuestro corazón y recibamos al Señor!

¡Gracias por su apoyo!

Fr. Abels

Our Religious Education Program prepares the children of our parish to receive the Sacraments of Christian Initiation (Baptism, First Holy Communion & Confirmation). Our Religious Ed. Program provides a solid foundation in our faith, age-appropriate to the students in our program. Sacramental preparation & faith formation is ongoing from Grades 1-8. Students in grades 1-8 & high school students are welcome to join.

Reflexion: Adviento: es el desafío de quienes prepararan el camino del Señor, limpiando el corazón, la mente y la actitud hacia los demás y aceptar la salvación que viene del Señor

Lord our God,
we praise you for your Son, Jesus Christ:
he is Emmanuel, the hope of the peoples,
he is the wisdom that teaches and guides us,
he is the Savior of every nation.

Lord God,
let your blessing come upon us
as we light the candles of this wreath.
May the wreath and its light
be a sign of Christ's promise to bring us salvation.

May he come quickly and not delay.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
R/. Amen.
