THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME ✦ NOVEMBER 8, 2020

EXPECTING THE UNEXPECTED

If it ever crossed your mind that Jesus was somewhat lacking in a sense of humor, today's Gospel should belie any such notion. Jesus' story of the five wise and five foolish bridesmaids is downright hilarious. The circumstances of the story were surely familiar to Jesus' listeners, just as they are—if we think about it—to us. Weddings never, ever start on time. There's always a delay. Buttons pop off at the last minute. Flowers wilt. Cars full of wedding guests get caught in traffic. Soloists contract laryngitis. Brides or grooms or priests show up late! So the only reasonable way to approach a wedding is with a sense of humor, to realize that something probably will go awry, and, when that happens, to smile about it.

Jesus tells this funny story to encourage us to be watchful, yes; to be ready, yes. But he doesn't tell it to make us dour and somber. The heavy-hearted tremble, waver, lose sight of their place and purpose, and fall asleep. The lighthearted know that the unexpected will happen—is bound to happen—so they are awake in their place and ready in their purpose when it comes.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present
In the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to Receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive
You sacramentally,

Come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there
And unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.

Dear Parishioners,

Wednesday, Nov 11, is Veteran's Day. This is a day when we as Americans honor those who have served in the United States Armed Forces. We give thanks to God for our modern day heroes who have defended our freedom and way of life from those who sought to destroy it. Please say a prayer for all our Veterans and make sure you thank them when you see them.

I remind you to pray for the souls in Purgatory during this month of November. Purgatory is that final place we go to be purified from all unrepentant sin before we will gaze upon Him for all eternity. Please know that we will remember all your loved ones in a special way at mass during this month of November. Be assured also that we will continue to pray for those of you who continue to mourn the passing of those who have gone before us. May God give you comfort by His promise of eternal life.

Next Sunday, Nov 15, I will be conducting Adult Faith Formation Class in the Auditorium. The topic will be on the Mass. I will "walk through" the mass and explain why we do some of the gestures and what really is supposed to happen when we truly pray the mass. Please call the Rectory and leave your name as we still need to limit the number to 25 people.

Finally, Deacon Rachid Murad informed me of his resignation as Director of Religious Education. I know you will join me in thanking him for his service here to the children, parents and catechists of the parish. He will always be welcomed here and we pray for him and his family.

I am happy to inform you that Rocio Castillo-Siegel is our new coordinator of our Religious Education Program. Rocio is very active in our Spanish Community. She is a woman of faith with a masters degree in bilingual education. Rocio has an advanced graduate certificate in school building administration. She also graduated from the Diocesan Pastoral Institute. So I know that she will do a great job in her new ministry here. Please keep her in prayer as she begins her very important role in our parish.

Thanks for your support!

Fr. Abels

Dear Friends in Christ, God calls each and everyone of us to serve Him in different ways. Some are called to serve Him as diocesan priests, religious and married couples. As we all discern about God's call, think of Him who reminds us, "The Harvest is rich but the Laborers are few. Pray the Lord of the Harvest to send more Laborers into His Harvest." Therefore, I am reaching out to you to pray to God that He send laborers to His harvest. Our Holy Father, in his message for the 2017 World Day of Vocations, tells us, "There can be no promotion of vocations or Christian mission apart from constant contemplative prayer." This implies the necessity for all of us to encourage vocations in our parish. For this reason, here in this parish, we will form a Parish Vocation Committee not only to pray for vocations, but find a way to promote them. Anyone who is willing to be a part of that committee, please see Seminarian Thimote or call the rectory Monday-Friday, 9am-5pm. Thank you for willing to promote vocations in our parish! God bless, Thimote.

Friendly Reminder that the Diocese continues to require, in consultation with the CDC guidelines, the wearing of masks in public spaces and houses of worship (churches) at all times. Thank you for your cooperation.

We are live streaming Daily Mass at 8:30am & Sunday at 9:00am (English) and 10:30am (Spanish) on Facebook. It can also be seen on our parish website.

Estimados feligreses,

El miércoles, 11 de noviembre es el Día de los Veteranos. Este es un día en cual siendo americanos honramos a los que han servido en las fuerzas armadas de los Estados Unidos de América. Damos gracias a Dios por nuestros héroes modernos quienes han defendido nuestra libertad y modo de vida de aquellos que buscaban destruirlo. Por favor digan una oración por todos nuestro veteranos y asegúrense de agradecerles cuando los vean.

Les recuerdo de rezar durante el mes de noviembre por las almas en el Purgatorio. El Purgatorio es el lugar final donde vamos a ser purificados de todo pecado impenitente antes de poder contemplarlo a Él por toda la eternidad. Por favor sepan que recordaremos a todos sus seres queridos de manera especial en la Misa durante el mes de Noviembre. Tengan por seguro que también continuaremos a rezar por ustedes que continúan a guardar duelo por el fallecimiento de ellos que se nos han adelantado. Que Dios les de consuelo con Su Promesa de vida eterna.

Próximo domingo, 15 de noviembre, llevare a cabo una clase de Formación de Fe para Adultos. El tema será la Misa. Yo “repasare” la Misa y explicare porque hacemos algunos gestos y que en verdad debe pasar cuando verdaderamente rezamos la Misa. Por favor llame a la Rectoría y deje su nombre debido a que necesitamos limitar el número de personas a 25.

Finalmente, el Diacono Rachid Murad, me ha informado de su renuncia como Director de Educación Religiosa. Yo sé que se unen conmigo para agradecerle por su servicio aquí hacia los niños, padres y catequistas de la parroquia. Siempre será bienvenido aquí y rezamos por él y su familia.

Estoy contento en informarles que Roció Castillo-Siegel es nuestra nueva coordinadora de nuestro Programa de Educación Religiosa. Roció es bien activa en nuestra comunidad hispana. Ella es una mujer de fe con licenciatura en educación bilingüe. Roció también tiene un título en administración de escuelas. También se ha graduado del Instituto Pastoral de la Diócesis. Es por eso que tengo seguro que hará un buen trabajo en su nuevo ministerio aquí. Por favor oren por ella mientras desempeña un papel importante en nuestra parroquia

¡Gracias por su apoyo!

Fr. Abels
