GOOD NEWS IS ON THE WAY

This week, in the midst of summer, the scriptures greet us with joy, peace, mercy, and more peace! Sounds a little like Advent, doesn't it? We often associate the prophet Isaiah with that preparatory season, and our first reading rings with such words as exult, comfort, and rejoice. The Israelites had reason to rejoice, for they had returned, come home, to a rebuilt Jerusalem from their exile in Babylon. In the Gospel, the seventy-two disciples who were sent out have their own "homecoming," returning to Jesus from spreading the Good News of the Kingdom and preparing people for the "advent" of Jesus into their cities and towns on his long road to Jerusalem. Like the exiles in Isaiah, the disciples return rejoicing. The Good News, the Kingdom of God, is coming, even in summer. As today's psalm reminds us, "Shout joyfully to God, all the earth!"

My dear friends,

On this Fourth of July Weekend we give thanks to God for the freedom that we enjoy as a country. We also give thanks to God for the men and women in our military who have defended our freedom and continue to do so today.

I want to thank you for your generosity in our three collections last weekend. I apologize for their being three but I was only notified by the diocese recently that the missionary priest was coming to OLA last weekend. I appreciate your generosity to all of our collections throughout the year.

Today we will have a reception to thank Sam and Yvonne, our organist and singer, for their 16 years of providing music for our parish. I thank them for all they have done for us and we wish them well in their new endeavors.

I am still in the process of interviewing an organist for our parish. It is not going as well as I would like it to be since so little has applied. Let's continue to pray that we will find one soon.

Thanks for your support!
Fr. Abels

Mis queridos amigos,

En el fin de semana del 4 de julio, damos gracias a Dios por la libertad que disfrutamos como país. También damos gracias a Dios por los hombres y mujeres en nuestras fuerzas armadas que han defendido nuestra libertad y aun continúan el día de hoy.

Yo quiero agradecer su generosidad en las tres colectas de la semana pasada. Yo me disculpo por las tres colectas pero recientemente me notifico la Diócesis que el sacerdote misionario llegaba a Nuestra Señora de los Ángeles la semana pasada. Yo aprecio su generosidad hacia todas nuestras colectas a través del año.

Hoy tendremos una recepción para agradecer a Sam e Yvonne, nuestro organista y cantora, por sus 16 años de proveer la música para nuestra parroquia. Yo les agradezco por todo lo que han hecho por nosotros y les deseo bien en sus nuevos proyectos.

Aun sigo en el proceso de entrevistar un organista para nuestra parroquia. No va tan bien como me gustaría debido a que pocos han aplicado. Vamos a continuar orando que encontremos uno pronto.

¡Gracias por su apoyo!
Padre Abels

St. Catherine of Siena A Prayer to Jesus in the Eucharist

O boundless charity!
Just as you gave us yourself,
wholly God and wholly man,
so you left us all of yourself as food
so that while we are pilgrims in this life we might not collapse in our weariness
but be strengthened by you, heavenly food.
O mercenary people!
And what has your God left you?
He has left you himself,
wholly God and wholly man,

hidden under the whiteness of this bread.
O fire of love!
Was it not enough to gift us
with creation in your image and likeness,
and to create us anew to grace in your Son's blood,
without giving us yourself as food,
the whole of divine being,
the whole of God?
What drove you?
Nothing but your charity,
mad with love as you are!

ST. ANDREW THE APOSTLE CARE FOR CREATION

There is a sense of God's incarnate presence in creation that shimmers forth to reveal the holiness of all things. Notice how your senses come alive when you walk out in the world aware of its sacramental nature. What do your eyes, ears, nose, mouth, and skin each reveal to you about how God is alive in the world around you?

--Christine Valters Paintner, in Richard Rohr's Daily Meditations

Oh, beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain,

For purple mountain majesties, above the fruited plain!

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Today's decision by the Supreme Court in Dobbs v. Jackson is certainly encouraging. I offer sincere appreciation to all of you who have worked tirelessly as witnesses and advocates for the unborn, as helpers of mothers and babies before and after birth, and as healers of all who have been wounded by the horrors of abortion. Those of us in the pro-life movement could have easily been discouraged throughout these past fifty years. However, the Lord has always renewed our strength and our hope in the most difficult moments as we continued to fight for the rights of the most defenseless members of society.

Today's decision corrects the crucial errors of Roe v. Wade and accompanying cases that have prevented our elected representatives from enacting even modest legal protections for the unborn. However, we surely still have a long way to go to convert hearts. We are challenged now to do more to foster a Culture of Life that respects the dignity of every human person, created in the image and likeness of God, from the first moment of conception to natural death and at every moment in between.

This decision is an important step along the way and will allow individual states to enact limits on abortion that have widespread support, especially with respect to abortions later in pregnancy. So, where do we go from here?

Prayer – We must beg the Lord's mercy for the sins against the unborn and against women in crisis pregnancies who were made to think that they had no alternative to abortion. We ask God to transform hardened hearts and renew within the Catholic community the firm resolve to win greater protection for the little ones in the womb.

Charity and respect – We must meet the vitriol of the negative reactions to this decision as true followers of Christ. We must exercise tremendous charity in our words and actions. This will contribute to the conversion of hearts and minds to the cause of life.

Dialogue – As Catholic citizens, we will seek to build consensus around the fundamental value and dignity of all human life. Participation in public debate in advancing pro-life legislation is not only our right as Americans, but also our responsibility. We know that there is widespread agreement on some limitations to abortion and on greater support for women and families during pregnancy. Though it may prove difficult to pass pro-life legislation here in New York State, we can attain some positive change by holding our elected officials accountable. We must seek allies from around the state, from other churches, religious communities, and the broader public.

Solidarity – We must accompany those most afraid and in need, especially women and families facing unexpected or difficult pregnancies. The bishops of New York State recently released a statement entitled “Toward a Pro-Life Future in the Empire State.” We are proposing new initiatives and policy changes that would assist women in carrying their babies to term and renewing our commitment to do our part. Faithful Catholics in Brooklyn and Queens have long been generous and even heroic in volunteering at pregnancy and early-childhood centers such as the Life Center and Bridge to Life. The credibility of our witness will demand that we redouble our efforts to support women and children in need, not only until birth but beyond. Unfortunately, here in New York State those pregnancy centers are under attack not only from fringe groups, but even from the state government itself, which recently enacted legislation harassing the centers under the guise of “studying them.”

The Church's pro-life witness is marked by joy and respect for every human person, even those who oppose our message or even wish to silence us. Authentic pro-life witness demands consistent advocacy for the respect for human dignity in truth and love at every stage of life for every human person created in the image and likeness of God. I am grateful for that witness and proud to stand alongside you.

May God continue to bless us at this important and historical moment remembering the unborn need us to continue to champion the cause of their life. May we be bold, joyful, and credible instruments of His peace as we strive to build a society in which all children are welcomed into the world and cherished for the beautiful gift they are.

Faithfully yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Robert J. Brennan
Bishop of Brooklyn
